HANDSOME NEW NAHIKU CHURCH IS DEDICATED

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

WAILUKU, Jan. 1.—One of the most beautiful days that Nahiku has ever known was that of last Sunday, when the pretty new church was dedicated. The traveler or old resident would have to look twice at the handsome new church just beyond the government school to recognize even the location of the old dilapidated building that once stood at that corner. The new building is finished in cement with the gray wall maintained both on the outside and inside. A metallic red roof surmounts these walls and a new bell tower of artistic design forms the entrance to the edifice. The church is one of the neatest in Maui county, and well may all those concerned in its modeling rejoice in it and be proud of the workmanship that completed it.

David Kalakaua had charge of all the carpenter work on the building. Joe Moikeha of the plastering, and Albert Pua of the painting. These are all well known Hawaiian workmen who have done considerable work for various parties in and about Wailuku. Abel Cathcart, D. K. Kahookela and S. K. Kaulihou are the three trustees of the church, who have composed the board that raised a large sum of money for the new building and have worked on the job of building up the church anew during the last three months.

The job was a difficult one, because the road from Maliko gulch to Lower Nahiku is in a frightful condition and more like the bed of a stream than anything else. Over this road it was most difficult to do any hauling of materials, yet the larger part of the lumber had to be hauled from Hana to Nahiku because the rough water of Nahiku bay would not permit of the landing of materials for the building.

Sand was also difficult to obtain and sometimes the workmen had to see that sand that was discovered under the surface of the water was secured by diving for it. At other times it had to be brought in canoes from long distances.

Under all these difficulties the work was carried on to successful completion and the services of dedication took place last Sunday morning. Rev. Rowland B. Dodge, agent of the Hawaiian board, was present from Wailuku and preached the sermon from John 3:16. Rev. Louis M. Mitchell was the other member of the committee present, and led the people in the responsive dedicatory service, offered the prayer of dedication and conducted the exercises of the day.

A large number of people were present from Nahiku, Keanae, Hana and a few from Kaupo. The singing was unusually fine, and the offering from all sources on Sunday amounted to $121, which went to the building fund of the church.

Not all the furniture of the building had arrived, as the new pulpit and chairs desired by the people had not yet been secured because of a shortage of funds. Also individual chairs that had been ordered from the Coast were not sent ashore last week by the Claudine, so that the old benches had to be used. The church as yet has no lighting plant, but it is hoped that in the near future adequate lighting by kerosene or some other means will be secured.

The interior finish of the church is very attractive. There is no ceiling, but the woodwork is finished to the roof and is varnished. Large four-pane windows were used so that there is an abundance of light. The church, though small in size, is ample to accommodate all the people of the lower village of Nahiku.

The financial part of the work of rebuilding the church was handled entirely by the Maui Aid Association, as is customary in Maui county in the erection or renovating of church buildings of all kinds.

On Tuesday of last week the monthly ministers' meeting of the Maui county ministers under the Hawaiian Board met at Kahului Union church. The meeting was an unusually profitable one, papers having been carefully prepared by 10 of the ministers for the occasion. Luncheon was served directly afterwards by the people of Kahului for all present. A meeting also of the standing committee of the Maui Evangelical Association was held to discuss some matters of importance concerning the work of the Maui churches.

Last Sunday evening Rev. Collins G. Burnham of Lahaina preached at the Wailuku Union church for Rev. Rowland B. Dodge, who was obliged to be absent from Wailuku because of the dedication of the Nahiku church.

The Tunku Transportation & Power Company was chartered at Dover, Del., to operate a railroad in Nicaragua.

Mayor Mitchell of New York denied the story that there has been any controversy between Police Commissioner Woods and himself over the appointment of a deputy commissioner.

Fire destroyed two stores in River-ton, N. J., at a loss of $25,000.

K. OF C. CRUISE TO HAWAII WILL

Full details of the Knights of Columbus cruise to Hawaii next summer have been received by the Star-Bulletin, which has been in correspondence with Edward H. Coleman, chairman of the organization's committee on the tour. The full itinerary, as shown in the attractive literature put out by the Kins-Hall Tours Company, which is handling the excursion, is as follows:

June 28, Monday—Arrive Hilo (2 p. m. of Hawaii). Excursion by automobile to the volcano Kilauea.

June 29, Tuesday—Return to Hilo, driving through forests of fern and koa trees, native villages, etc.

June 30, Wednesday—Arrive Honolulu, where seven days will be spent.

July 1, Thursday—Shopping and sightseeing around Honolulu. Automobile drive to the Nuuanu valley, the Pali, Moanaloa, overlooking Pearl Harbor; Diamond Head, Waikiki beach, etc.

July 5, Monday—Grand excursion to Haleiwa, where a study of real Hawaiian life will be found interesting.

July 6, Tuesday—Swimming and surf-riding contest at Waikiki beach. Leave for San Francisco.

July 12, Monday—Arrive San Francisco.

"This wonderful cruise will take 21 days," says the booklet. "The rate of $200, payable in instalments, is inclusive and covers all necessary expenses during the entire trip. A few cabins 'de luxe' are suites at higher rates can be secured.

"The rate includes first-class hotels everywhere, providing three meals a day, consisting of breakfast, table d'hôte luncheon and dinner, rooms, etc.; first-class railway and steamer fares; transfers to and from hotels; auto drives and sightseeing as specified in the itinerary; admission fees to places visited; while sightseeing with the director; gratuities to hotel servants, railway porters, etc.; free allowance 350 pounds of baggage on the ocean steamer; local guides, where necessary, and services of competent manager."

General Manager Oscar Ems writes to the Star-Bulletin as follows:

"We have no doubt that the Sierra will be full before the end of January if we judge by the many inquiries we receive daily. Most of the 'cabins de luxe' have been sold to prominent San Francisco Knights. Los Angeles and San Diego councils have promised to boost the cruise and there will be Knights from all parts of the states. Representatives from several papers will be with the party and we expect to print a record of the trip with pictures taken on the islands, a copy of which will be sent to all the councils of the United States, also to relations and friends of the members of the Sierra cruise.

"We have no doubt that we will have the time of our life while at Hilo and Honolulu, as we know that Hawaii knows how to greet visitors."

WINTER TERM BEGINS IN SCHOOLS TODAY

Public schools in Oahu opened this morning for the second term at the completion of the annual Christmas vacation and after a short respite reading, 'riting and 'rithmetic will again be the order of the day for Oahu children.

In addition to the public institutions Mills school, Kamehameha schools, St. Louis college and several Hawaiian, Japanese and Chinese schools opened this morning. Kawaiahae Seminary in Manoa valley will open tomorrow. At none of the schools will any special exercises commemorate the reopening.
